

FISH-KABOOM

Brenex used to be known for being a beautiful country, but after the war there is a little beauty or food to be found - except for in War Lakes, where there are fish and nuclear bombs aplenty. Carefully fish in these dangerous waters to try and feed your family - but be quick! You're not the only with the same idea, and you might just go home hungry if you aren't fast enough.

Features

-  Fish-Kaboom is described as a puzzle game that can be played with friends and family in a fun and free-for-all.
-  Players are referred to as fishers. At the same time, every fisher participates in the game.
-  Fishers initiates the game by clicking on random place to catch the fish in the Lake
-  Fishers carries a fish basket – score point. A fisher wins 4 fish's with just one right
-  After the first move don't just pick any random spot to fish: if you find a bomb, it will explode and take out some of your fish (on your basket) with you.
-  Fish enjoy the warmth of radiation: the more bombs there are around a fishing spot, the more fish you will find.
-  Use the hints left by long-gone fishers to find where bombs are located and avoid them.
-  Every fisher has a flag they can place on a fishing spot if they think there is hidden bomb. Fishers can see each other's flags – but careful! They may not always be correctly placed!
-  There are electric eels swimming in these lakes: they are attracted to fast movement and will stun you for a few seconds if you fish too fast!
-  After a bomb explodes, the remaining fishers still have a few minutes to fish until the radiation kills them.
-  Don't worry: all the fish you have with you by The End  will revert to your families – whether you're dead or alive!
